Tuesday, July 8. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 2.

Rome, June 4.

General Wetzel, one of the Officers of the Imperial Troops that are detach'd for Naples, arriv'd here some Days ago and has had Audience of the Pope. 'Tis fear'd by this Court, that the Imperial Officers are order'd to assert the Pretensions of the Court of Vienna relating to the Feudatories of the Church, by obliging the Roman and other Barons to acknowledge the Emperour for their Sovereign, and to receive from him the Investiture of their Fiefs, conformably to the Declaration made on that Subject by Count Martiniz when he was Ambassador here in the Time of Pope Innocent XII.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 9.

Rome, June 11. A Bridge of Boats is laid over the Tiber near Monterotondo, for the German Troops that are on the March for the Kingdom of Naples. Order is given for their being subsisted on their Route; and those that have Lordships, as well as the Corporations of Places, are commanded to cause the Provisions, Refreshments, and Forrage they are to furnish, to be carry'd to them at their own Expence. Troops are come into this City from several Parts of the Ecclesiastical State, to reinforce the ordinary Guard; and new Levies are making. Provisions and Ammunition are put into the Castle of St. Angelo, because notwithstanding the reiterated Promises made by the Emperour's Officers, the Example of what the People have suffer'd in the Places where the Imperial Troops have pass'd, gives Ground to fear Disorder. They write from Naples, that the Viceroy has dispos'd the Troops of that City according to its Quarters, and the chief of the Nobility will have the Command of them; that the Barons are raising Men, each on his own Estate; and that Gaeta, Capua, and the Castles, are furnish'd with Cannon, Provisions, and Ammunition. The Garrison of Gaeta is compos'd of veteran Spanish Troops, and 20 Pieces of Cannon are sent thither. The Prince of Castiglione is gone to Capua with 2 Regiments of Dragoons, which will be at Hand to draw to Naples on Occasion; and the Duke of Atri is with a Body of Troops on the Frontiers of the Abruzzo.

From the Antw. Cour. & Amst. Gaz. July 8 & 12.

Naples, June 14. Collonel Villezana, who was sent to Palermo to desire Succours of the Marquis de Bedmar Viceroy of Sicily, is return'd with Excuses from that Viceroy for not furnishing such Succours. Our Viceroy has caus'd 800 Banditi and other Malefactors to be set at Liberty, on Condition to take on in the Service: His Excellency has sent his Plate into the Mint to be coin'd into Money; and the Dukes de Matalone and Lorenzano, the Prince of Cellamare, and other Lords have done the like. 'Tis certain his Excellency will take the Field in Person; and our Forces are on the March to Gaeta, where the main Army will be form'd. The Prince of Avellino has rais'd 3000 Men, and the Prince of Torella has furnish'd 6000 Measures of Oats for the Service of the Troops.

From the Amst. Gaz. and Antw. Cour. July 8. and 12.

Rome, June 11. The Cardinals of whom the Congregations of State and War are compos'd, are taken up with examining what is proper to be done upon the Demands and the March of the Imperialists, who are expected this Evening at Monte-Rotondo. They will proceed from thence to Tivoli and Vicovaro, where 'tis said they will halt 5 or 6 Days, as well to rest themselves, as to resolve how to order their March, because according to the Advices from Naples great Preparations are made there for Defence. Several French Officers are come thither from Leghorne where they landed, and are to go on to Gaeta, to make the necessary Preparation for receiving there the Succours expected from Provence. Yesterday Count Martiniz arriv'd here, and with him C. Taun and several Imperial General Officers and others, with a Guard of 150 Horse which are lodg'd in the publick Inns: The Pope is very much dissatisfied at their bringing in so many Arm'd Men, and has complain'd to Cardinal Grimani and M. Cauniz that 'tis an Infraction of the Concordat. In the meantime 8 of the City Gates are wall'd up, and the Guard of the rest is augmented. Soldiers are likewise posted in all the Quarters, to hinder Disorders and Rabberies. Cardinal de la Tremouille and the Ambassador of Spain have taken into their Service 500 arm'd Men, and provided Cannon likewise for securing themselves in their Palaces. The Viceroy of Naples has not only demanded Passage for his Troops through the Ecclesiastical Territories; it hereafter he shall have Occasion; and the Town of Palliano for a Place of Arms; but the Investiture of the Kingdom of Naples for King Philip. Between his Demands and those of the Imperialists this Court is not a little perplex'd, being willing to be easy with both Parties.

Vienna, June 29. The Earl of Peterborow arriv'd here from Italy the 20th Instant. The same Day the Duke d'Elbæuf set out from hence for the Kingdom of Naples, and General Count Fels for Piemont to serve under Prince Eugene. We have Advice, that the Party for the House of Austria in the Kingdom of Naples, insist that the Pope be press'd to give the Investiture of that Kingdom to King Charles III, to the End that if the Expedition thither do not produce a Revolution as is expected, they may not be treated as Rebels. 'Tis the general Opinion, that Count Martiniz who is gone to Naples, is to take Direction from Cardinal Grimani in the Management of Affairs in that Kingdom; and that therefore the said Count will not make a long stay there. The Army under Count Guido Staremberg, lies between Seret and Newheusel, waiting for Artillery and Ammunition with which to attack that Place, which the Malecontents give out they will defend vigorously. 'Tis advis'd from the said Army, that Count Joseph Esterhazy being sent out with a Party of 1000 Men, took in a Village a Captain of Horse, a Lieutenant and 2 Soldiers of the Malecontents; who being examin'd by Order of Count Staremberg, confirm'd, that there had been great Divisions and Quarrels between the Malecontents in the Diet at Onod; with these Particulars, viz. That Count Berezeni drew his Scimiter, and gave the first Wound to Christopher the Son of Paul Ockolizani, who was cut in Pieces, and left 3 Days unburied before the Tent of the Country; that the Day following the 2 Vicounts of Arva and Turacz were beheaded, and Paul Ockolizani with 19 others of the Nobility laid in Irons. And by the last Letters from our Army we are told, that the said Ockolizani has been impal'd alive. Other Advices from Hungary say, that Prince Ragowski appearing in the Assembly at Onoth, the Malecontents there signified to him that they were weary of the War, and murmur'd that no other than Copper-Money was current in the Country; whereupon he plainly told them, that seeing he was like to be ill supported, he would make his own Peace with the Emperour, and leave them to themselves to carry on the War without Money, and therewith he threw his Scimiter on the Ground, and bid bid them farewell; at this they were so mov'd, that they granted his Demand of 4 Millions and 200000 Florins in Money, or the 6th Part of the Money of the whole Kingdom. Count Schlick arriv'd here from Italy the 27th Instant. Count Palfi having brought a Body of 4 or 5000 Croats into the Neighbourhood of Neustad, is himself come to Court. Count Rabutin will not take on him the Command of the Troops design'd for Transylvania, till the Sum of Money promis'd him for the Expedition be advanc'd. Count Wratislaw, Chancellor of Bohemia, is appointed to go to the King of Sweden, to relieve Count Sinzendorf.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 12.

Vienna, June 29. There have been great Contests in the Diet at Onoth between the Roman Catholics and the Protestants, about the Banishment of the Jesuites and the Relumption of their Estates, which the Protestants insist on as a thing just and equitable, but the Roman Catholics oppose it, as being contrary to the Grants made to the Jesuites and to their Right of Possession: Prince Ragotski and most of the Chiefs of the Malecontents, are said to be of the Party of the Protestants in this Matter.

Stockholm, June 29. The 27th Instant, on which Day the King of Sweden enter'd into the 26th Year of his Age, was celebrated at Carlsberg with great Rejoycing: The Queen Grandmother found herself so well, that she appear'd at the Ball. We hear nothing here of his Swedish Majesty's March out of Saxony, nor are any Orders come hither yet for transporting the Recruits from hence to Germany.

Lost the 3d Instant, between Whitehall and Covent-Garden, a large Falter Diamond, very high, Picked on the Point, weighing about 16 or 18 Grains. Whoever brings it to Mr. Bonom Jeweller at his House in St. James's-street, shall receive 30 Guineas Reward, or if Pawn'd or Sold their Money again and 5 Guineas.

True Spectacles and Reading Glasses made to the greatest Perfection, by the use of which young Persons may preserve their Sight to the greatest Age, and which from the Crisital Clearness of the Glass and Truth of the Work supply the want of Natural strength, preserve and to assist the weakest Eyes so much as to render the Person capable of doing the finest of Work, and Reading the smallest Print. It is to be observ'd that a weak Sight suffers more in one year without them it will in 4 with the use of these Spectacles, they being ground on true Brass Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common sort of Spectacles being ground on false Iron Tools, and made of a darkish or else of green Glass, are so far from preserving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Telescopes made to so great a perfection that a small one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, discover things at the remotest distance, and make them appear as near as most of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the assistance of which small Telescope you may tell what a Clock it is by such a Dial as Bow or St. James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles distance proportionable; it being the pleasantest and usefulest Instrument of this kind, and so esteem'd by Gentlemen that some have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another. These with all sorts of Microscopes of the newest and best Improvement, Prospective-Glasses and other Curiosities, are Made and Sold by G. Wilkey and T. Brandreth at the Archimedes and Globe in Ludgate-street, the corner next St. Paul's.
